Mrs. Manley

I recieved the contract today and in sending it back by return mail. I was in hopes of getting at least $150 dollars this season. I dislike arguments over salary, so I'm signing this contract and returning it in hopes that it will be torn up in favor of the $150. I'm sure that I earned it. I hope to hear from you in a few days concerning a new contract or at least whether I am refused one or not.

Sincerely,

Francis Matthews.
